Pyjamarama Reading Event

Dear Parents and Carers,

To help promote a love of reading at Headlands, and to help us raise money to purchase new reading books, we are holding a Pyjamarama Reading Event for our Headlands children. This exciting event will take place on Wednesday 1st February from 5pm until 6pm. Those children taking part will be grouped with others in their year group and will have the opportunity to hear stories read by staff and share their favourite books with other children. They should come in their pyjamas and may choose to bring their favourite teddy or blanket with them. Children may also bring a torch and their favourite book to read with a friend if they wish.

During the evening, children will be given either a glass of milk, hot chocolate or water and a biscuit by the P.T.A. They will also be given a little memento of the occasion before going home. Entry is £2.50 per child which will go towards purchasing new reading books for our school.

Parents are asked to bring their child to school from 4.50 pm onwards at the school's main entrance. All children must be collected promptly at 6pm. Parents will be asked to walk to the Key Stage Two playground where they will then walk through to the school hall to collect their child and leave through the school's main entrance. There will be staff on hand to direct parents to the correct place.

If you would like your child to take part in the event, please complete the form (including refreshment choice) and pay the entry fee via School Money by 12 noon on Wednesday 25th January. Please note that there will be no admittance without having completed this form.

We are really looking forward to seeing as many children as possible at the event. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best wishes,
Miss Cattley
